OOFERS MEMBER DISTRESS GUIDANCE ASSISTANCE

At the May 2018 OOFERS Annual General Meeting held in Sydney it was resolved: “As a service to OOFER membership that “Distress Guidance Assistance” would be offered to any OOFER or OOFER family member who suffer distress from a death, serious illness, breakdown or business threat. This is a free service.

The objective of the service is to provide the opportunity for OOFER members and or their families who may be presented with distress situation/s where they are not sure what to do or what decision/s should be taken and would therefore welcome No-obligation, independent, strictly confidential advice.

The service would involve, in discussion with those in distress, to appoint an independent OOFER “Adviser” to provide professional guidance.

Such advice and guidance would be undertaken on a strictly confidential basis and would draw on the expertise available within the OOFER community or if necessary, from external professional support.

The OOFER community has vast professional experience and qualifications in the areas of Business Management, Accountancy, Financial Advisers, Legal and Human Relations and it is proposed that this specialist experience could be made available to those OOFER members and or their families in times of serious distress.

Should an OOFER member and or an OOFER member’s family, wish to avail themselves of this strictly confidential service, they should in the first instance contact the OOFERS Chairman and or any member of the OOFERS Board of Directors.
